Vastu Yantra

Dimensions (L x W x H): 10 cm x 12 cm x 13 cm

How to Use the Vastu Yantra?

Yantras are great cosmic conductors of energy, an antenna of Nature, a powerful tool for harmony, prosperity, success, good health, yoga and meditation! Yantras consist of a series of geometric patterns. The eyes and mind concentrate at the center of the Yantra to achieve higher levels of consciousness.

Place the Yantra on the South West of the entire plot facing the North East in a clean and sacred altar. Do not let other people touch the Yantra.

How it works: Vastu Yantra is one of the most powerful instrument which works like an All Rounder Energy Magnet.

Pranakart has Purified, Energized and Programmed with the help of Universal Concept. Whatever be the etherically imbalances in a place, this Vastu Yantra balances the energies from all the eight directions from above and below too. Field in our lives.

If you are into any healing modality you can reprogram.

- It helps to increase Prosperity, Spirituality, and Maintaining Good harmony in Relationship. It also improves the Business
- Turtle: represents longevity and harmony to the family members and the business. It is best recommended for Peace, prosperity and happiness. Divine programmed stone is placed on the Turtle's neck which enhances the cosmic energy.
- PYRAMIDS: There are 81 Pyramids, on top 9 pyramids and a Single pyramid on the back of Turtle. These pyramids are made for the purpose of attracting cosmic energy available in the space. This energy is converted to divine rays.
- Swastik: represent Lord Ganesh who is the Lord of Education, Intelligence and Prosperity which means the family is eventually blessed with great knowledge, Career growth and Prosperity with Divinity.

Buddha Kwan Yin or Quan Yin

Guan Yin or Kwan Yin or Quan yin or Avalokitesvara Bodhisattva is a very prominent and admired Goddess, widely pursued by the Chinese and followers of Mahayana Buddhism.

Being the definitive icon of mercy and passion, Due to her commitment to helping humans, she is approached with any concerns, troubles, or worries.

Be it family, career, health or relationships, no trouble is too big to be brought to the motherly and all-powerful energy of Quan Yin.

She will assist those trying to overcome:

- depression,
- grief,
- relationship issues,
- family drama,
- illness,
- Death of loved ones and other major obstacles in life.

She is known as the “One Who Hears the Cries of the World” – when in distress, one must chant “Om Mani Padme Hum” (the potent Buddhist mantra) in front of her image.

Guan Yin will then protect you, your family and your business from evil. Like a child calling its mother, people depend on the Goddess of Mercy and Compassion, grateful for her promptness and immediacy.

Once this bodhisattva is called upon, she will serve to rid the caller’s life of suffering, transforming it into joy and harmony.

- Never place your Quan Yin statue on the floor, in the kitchen or in the bathroom. A height of at least 3 feet is recommended for the good Feng Shui placement.

Mandarin Ducks (Love Birds)

- In Feng Shui, Mandarin ducks are a pair of ducks usually figurines kept in a home to enhance and attract love.
- They are also known as love ducks, Yin-Yang ducks.
- They symbolize love, romance, devotion, affection, and fidelity to the partner, and they are often used to aid single people in finding their partners.
- In real life, too Mandarin Ducks are one partner ducks. Once they get separated, they won't be able to live for a long time. They become lonely and keep waiting for their partner to come back till death does them apart.
- The Mandarin Ducks are essential for married couples, and so it provides for the perfect wedding gift. They are said to provide a loving environment, enhancing romance and relationship quality, with no chance of divorce, infidelity or marital misfortune.
- However, not only is it for those in love; singles who make use of the Mandarin Ducks will be benefiting their love life, too. The Mandarin Duck is said to enhance the chance of him or her finding their mate for life, creating marriage opportunities that will be everlasting.
- The Mandarin Ducks are always portrayed in a pair; this is because of their real-life habits. These ducks are monogamous and mate for life, and when they lose their partners, they feel great grief and would pine away. They would never acquire a new partner for the rest of their lives.
- It is for this reason that the Mandarin Ducks are a long-known and wide-spread Feng Shui symbol of love and success of marriage, one that is filled with devotion, adoration, loyalty and everlasting romance.
- Excellent wedding gifts or gift for friends who have been single for a long time but not by choice.
